New Orleans—A Coup D'Etat.

[From the Washington Chronicle.]

It seems that the reorganized State Government of Louisiana is still in a chrysalis state, and that it is far from having a firm and steady foundation of authority in the will of the people. This inchoate and immature present condition will be rendered palpable by the following special order issued by the commander of the Department:

At half-past 1 o'clock yesterday, says the True Delta, of May 6, a party of four officers, consisting of Brigadier General Davis, Colonel F. A. Starring, Provost Marshal General: Col. Samuel M. Quincy, and Lieut. Col. J. Schuyler Crosby, Assistant Adjutant General of the Department, waited upon Acting Mayor Hu. Kennedy at the City Hall, and informed that functionary that they were there in pursuance of the following order:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF,
NEW ORLEANS, May 5, 1865.

Special Order No. 119.

[Extract.]
Colonel Samuel M. Quincy, 73d United States Colored Infantry, is relieved from his present duties, and is hereby assigned to the duty of Acting Mayor of the city of New Orleans.

On the receipt of this order, he will go to the City Hall and assume the duties of that office. The present Acting Mayor is directed to surrender to him all the papers connected with that office.

By command of Major General Banks.
J. C. STONE,
Captain and Assistant Adjutant General.
There is a strong discrepancy in the accounts given by the True Delta, the Tribune, and the Times of the circumstances which led to the coup d'etat.

When Gen. Schofield issued his recent order declaring all the slaves in North Carolina free, great consternation was created by it at first, as the labor of the slaves was wanted to put in the spring crops, and they refused to work, claiming that their former masters owed them a living. General Cox, of the twenty-third corps, however, has reassured the people by telling them that the slaves will be obliged to work and support themselves. Hon. John A. Gilmer has commenced dividing his lands up, and furnishing his former slaves facilities to work with. Other masters will follow this example.

The Petersburg Express says: "More bacon has been unearthed in the counties adjacent to Petersburg, since the occupation by the U. S. troops, than unsophisticated persons believed existed in any two States in the South. Thousands of pounds are almost daily brought in. Where one ham could be found before the evacuation, one hundred can be purchased now."

Advises from Mexico state that the Liberals had threatened Matamoras, and that a fight had ensued outside the city. Another account says the Liberals were retreating.
